

ORONOQUE COUNTRY CLUB

385 ORONOQUE LANE - STRATFORD, CT 06614

Oronoque Country Club is a private golf club set high above the Housatonic River in Fairfield County. The challenging 6600 yard par 72 Championship layout is a classic New England Design. Commissioned in 1972, renowned golf architect Desmond Muirhead converted the existing orchard fields and farmland into rolling fairways and undulating greens. Oronoque Country Club was host site for the 2000 Connecticut Junior Golf Championship, the 2001 Connecticut Amateur Qualifier and 2006 District Championship and was selected as one of America's Toughest 50 outstanding golf courses by Golf Digest in 2007.

Pace of Play: 4 hours – If a faster 4-some is playing behind you and your group is not keeping pace with the group in front or there are holes open, please let the 4-some behind play through at your earliest convenience. If you play in the first hour of tee times on weekends and holidays, you must maintain a 3½ hour pace.

Soft Spikes only.

Dress Code – Country club golf attire for men and women, no short shorts, no denim, collared shirts for men, no sleeveless shirts for women without collar.

Local Rules – USGA rules are in effect – The embedded ball rule is in effect through the green – White stakes define out of bounds – All Water Hazards are lateral – Drop areas on Holes #3 or #17 may be used – The entire area right/north of the 9th fairway is an environmental hazard, you may not play your ball from that hazard – All paved roads and parking lots are out of bounds even if your ball crosses a road and ends up on golf course property.
